Marine Court.

Before Hon. Judge McCarthy.

IMPORTANT TO SPORTING MEN—BETTING ON ELECTIONS.

JAN. 18.—Delancy as touron.—Immediately previous to the last election the plaintiff made a bet with one Gallegher, of $500, on the result of the Feurteenth ward Alegramshic election. Beforehant was the statenholder. Alegramsh Monaghan having been elected, and the stakes being paid over to the winner, plaintiff sues to recover back his money, under the state against "gaming and betting." Defendant contested, on the ground that he was not the stakeholder, and further, that the plaintiff was not the real party in interest. Considerable existement was manufested, and the court room was crowded with the numerous friends of Twomey and Monahan, the respective candidates for Alderman of the Fourteenth ward. Several law points were raised, and the Judge announced that he would give his decision on Wednesday morning.
